

2018 A Quiz by Barry Tuckwood

And now for the answers

1. Sibelius, Helsinki.
2. Henry the Navigator in Lisbon did not go on these voyages. He was the man behind them. Whatever floats your boat. Or, in his case, someone else's

3. Hans up if you knew. In Copenhagen
4. Inside every block of ice there could be an eagle trying to fly
5. Talking of ice, Amundsen and his mates

6. It's the fish church in Gothenburg, Sweden; food looked fabulous, but too for lunch. time to venture around the Volvo museum although that was next to our berth.

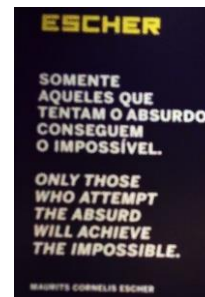

early No

7. In Warnemünde the women used the yokes to carry buckets of sand for ballast on the fishing boats.

8. Escher was Dutch, from There used to be a place in huge pictures of his work One of his most famous waterfalls, channels; both defying the rules of dimensions.

Leeuwarden Glasgow with on the wall. depicts water, another stairs, gravity and 3-

9. There are 10 bridges across the Danube in Budapest, including the two rail bridges. Another road bridge is planned, and one of the rail bridges is to be expanded. The first crossing, The Chain Bridge, was designed by WT Clark, noted for the original Hammersmith Bridge, and also Marlow Bridge, pictured. The Chain Bridge was built by Adam Clark, an unrelated Scottish engineer.

10. The dragon is in Kew Gardens

Happy New Year.